

Choral Rendezvous

Music in the Mountains

July 15-19, 2009

In its fifteenth year, the Episcopal Diocese of Idaho and St. Philip's Episcopal Church of Challis, sponsor Choral Rendezvous as an ecumenical outreach. The performance-oriented music conference draws together music lovers from around the country.

Living Waters Ranch

Living Waters Ranch (LWR), a Christian retreat and conference center located 4.2 miles west of Challis, Idaho, host Choral Rendezvous. The beautiful mountains of central Idaho surround the ranch. Visit their website at www.livingwatersranch.org

Mark Lawlor- CR Director 2009

Before joining the Oklahoma State Music Department staff, Mark was director of choral activities at Idaho State University. He conducted the concert choir, the chamber choir and the community-based Camerata Singers in addition to teaching choral conducting, literature and choral methods, voice and organ. Prior to ISU, Mark was associate director of choral activities and conductor of Choral Union at Arizona State University.

Mr. Lawlor was a faculty member and chair of the music department at Marist College, Poughkeepsie, New York for 11 years. He held the position of choral conductor at the United States Military Academy at West Point for eight years conducting six of the choirs. He has prepared choirs to sing for several United States presidents.

Mark resides in Stillwater, Oklahoma, with his wife and two daughters. Visit www.mlawlor.com
